Hey im Kizuato the Human im a new york experimental artist/rapper and creator

The front man of Selfless Demise (tweak) booked me for one of my first couple of shows and really brought me into my local scene and we've been working and collaborating together ever since

What have been your favorite gigs this past year and why?

I would say it was opening up for kamiyada at the living gallery in January, i had one of my biggest crowds and i was opening for an artist ive known since I started making music and respect so it felt like a real level up

What are you performing on tour?

All the classics, songs from my last project "all roads lead to rome", bangers like alberta and acl, and a probably a few extras depending on what im feeling

What are you looking forward to on tour?

Being on the road with my friends, seeing more friends on the road, giving the people a good show and most importantly eat good local food

What's your favorite movie and why?

My favorite movie is "frank" its about this mentally unwell musician who's in this band with other crazy artists and they find fame through their art, ill leave the rest for you to watch yourself
